

i am submitting this comment in opposition to the bpl issue this must not be approved, as it will cause serious interference to the amateur radio service, making the hf bands virtually useless. considering the public service rendered by amateur radio in the form of emergency communications, this is also a public safety issue, and bpl should not be allowed.